

Journal of Korean Studies Workshop
“Archives, Archival Practice, and the Writing of History in Premodern Korea”

Thursday, May 17, 2018, 10:00 AM – 6:00 PM
International Affairs Building, Room 918
Center for Korean Research
Columbia University

9:45AM – 10:00AM      Coffee and Welcome Remarks

10:00AM – 12:30PM      Session One

Sem Vermeersch (Seoul National University), “How Relevant is the Term “Archive” for Understanding Premodern Korean Traditions of Recordkeeping?”

Sixiang Wang (Stanford University) “An archive of empire: the production of diplomatic knowledge in Chosŏn Korea”

Graeme Reynolds (Harvard University), “The Curation of Archives and History in the Early Chosŏn”

Discussants: Jisoo Kim (George Washington University); Sun Joo Kim (Harvard University)

12:30PM – 1:30PM      Lunch

1:30PM – 3:10 PM      Session Two

Sung-Eun T. Kim (The University of British Columbia), “Silencing Joseon Buddhist Culture: The Excluded Poems of Buddhist-Confucian Poetry Exchanges”

Franklin Rausch (Lander University) “On the Margins of the Margins: The Late Chosŏn Korean Catholic Archive”

Discussant: Seong Uk Kim (Columbia University)

3:10PM – 3:30PM      Coffee break

3:30PM – 5:10PM      Session Three

Ksenia Chizhova (Princeton University): “Vernacular Itineraries: Korean Letters in Family and National Archives”

Ye Yuan (Columbia University), “The Righteous Man and the Unvirtuous Woman: The Making of “The Story of Geng Zhi” and Its Korean Translation”

Discussant: Youngkyun Oh (Arizona State University)

5:10PM – 6:00PM      Session Four
Round Table Discussion

Moderator: Jungwon Kim (Columbia University)

6:30PM –                    Dinner (Location TBA)